The IEL website lists the schools and names of member riders schools for the purpose of posting competition results. In addition, the IEL website includes a "photo album" section with photographs of the riders at IEL competitions. Photos do not include names or any other identifying information. The school/rider information and images are used by the League solely on the IEL website. In order to assure that your son or daughter receives acknowledgement for their accomplishments on the website, your consent to release this information is required.

Parent/Guardian Signature: _____

Membership and Eligibility forms will NOT be processed unless completely filled out, including all signatures.
